

Mr. Dana, of the N. Y. Sun, has been released from Government custody. Fullerton has let up on Beecher. House of Representatives of Louisiana passed a resolution impeaching Auditor Clinton for fraudulent disbursement of the public funds. Gov. Kellogg sent a special message to the Legislature, urging more of reform legislation. Troops have been ordered to assist the civil authorities of Texas in arresting marauders, etc.

From those who have long resided here, we learn that the Democrats of Lincoln county, have ever been true to their party. Above all mere personal preferences, they have stood by their party's standard, and their standard bearers, and this accounts for the universal success of Democratic measures in the county. Local matters may have, as we learn, occasionally brought down their majority, but in no sense have they ever been willing to sacrifice measures for the benefit of men. "Measures, not men," is the true theory of government and of parties. We heard an intelligent Republican say the other day, that if three, or even two Democrats remained upon the track for the Legislature, his party would, at, or near the "eleventh hour," place a candidate upon the canvas, and if they should do so, it is not a difficult thing to guess who would be our next representative.

We heard another of the same ilk, assert, that, in case all three of the Democrats now aspiring to this office, should remain on the track, that his party would select and vote for the one, whomsoever he was, and whom they believed to be the most obnoxious to the Democrats. In either case, we have a common duty to perform, and that is, to call a Convention and give the standard to the best man. In no other way is there safety to our party. True it is, that there are three-and-a-half months intervening between now and the election, but the Convention should not be long delayed. The friends of each Democratic aspirant are eager for "their man" to be elected. Bitter and incalculable animosity may be engendered, and the sales plan is to hold a meeting about the 2d Monday in May, and give the banner to one man.

This would, as we believe, quiet the other aspirants and their friends, produce harmony, and make the way smooth and clear to a triumphant victory. We have made the foregoing suppositions after conversing with a number of our staunch Democratic friends from almost every precinct in the county, and now leave the matter in the hands of the County Committee and Democrats generally.

Tax papers, all over the country, have made much sport over the Beecher-Tilton trial, which has been going on for many days. Much that has been said and written was, no doubt, intended for the amusement of the public; but, after all, there is a very serious side to this matter. A once happy, joyous home has been rudely broken up. Where, in other years, the love and affection of a dutiful wife made sunshine in the house, and the tender caresses of innocent children made a father's heart glad there is now desolation. The "serpent" came and left his slimy, poisonous trail. He invaded that happy home, and light has given place to darkness. Now has followed gladness! We do not intend to make ourselves the exponent of Theodore Tilton, for no one can question the fact that he has faults like other sinful mortals, but we simply desire to say, that, in our opinion, and this opinion is based upon the testimony adduced in the case, he has been most grievously wronged, and that too, by the man upon whom he relied as a safe counselor and friend. When once the happiness of husband and wife has been destroyed by means such as have been made manifest in this case, there can be no hope of a restoration. That Tilton loved his wife with a pure devotion, all the facts and circumstances tend to prove. The love which Beecher bore for her was that of the rake and libertine. With this love, and an overbearing influence, he won her from the paths of virtue and destroyed forever the happiness of a once happy home. If human testimony is to be, or can be credited, then Beecher is guilty. Five witnesses have sworn positively that he is guilty of the charges preferred against him by Tilton.

No fair-minded man can read the proof and doubt his guilt for a moment. It is not yet, nor will it be for weeks to come, but when the end arrives, it is our opinion that the people who have read the proof will at once pronounce a verdict of GUILTY whatever the jury may do.

FATHER YORKS, in delivering the funeral discourse over the remains of Dan Bryant, a celebrated actor, took occasion to speak in high terms of the stage, and disclaimed any prejudice against the profession by the Catholic Church, but regarded it as an honorable and useful career.

A SUIT has been filed by the owners of lots and other property in Superior City against the city of Duluth praying for an injunction restraining the latter from diverting the channel of a river from the former city, and to compel them to fill up a canal already dug. A number of citizens of Kentucky, years ago, invested largely in real estate at Superior City, which but for the digging of this canal, might have proved to be a paying investment. Col. C. H. Rochester, of this place, owns a large number of lots there, and says that he believes that Superior City has a bright future.

One of the clauses in the Constitution adopted by the Grangers, is in these words:

"We emphatically and sincerely assert the oft-repeated truth taught in our organic law, that the Grange, National, State or Subordinate, is not a political or party organization. No Grange, if true to its obligations, can discuss political or religious questions, nor call political conventions, nominate candidates, nor even discuss their merits in their meetings."

Yet, the Editor of the Southern Agriculturist, gets things awfully mixed, in this wise:

"A hopeful revolution is setting in, and we hail its beginning with intense satisfaction. The doctors, the judges, the lawyers, the kid-gloved and fine equipped gentry may rally around their pet champion, and push their claims for gubernatorial honors, but brown jeans, undressed leather and weather-beaten, sun-tanned brows, representing the toiling yeomen of this noble State, are determined to bring out upon the next gubernatorial race-course a full, pure-blooded Granger steed—good bottom, high spirited, in the person of Gen. John S. Williams. The farmers are entitled to fill the Governor's chair in succession, and as the Grangers largely compose the majority in the State, they have the right to the nomination. We are not gifted with prophecy, but there comes up from every part of the State such a pronounced voice for Gen. Williams that we feel assured if the people are not cheated in the nominating convention he will be triumphantly nominated, and of course elected. We say in advance to the wire-pullers that if the farmers find they have been gerrymandered and befooled out of a fair expression of their opinion they will rally around an independent candidate and elect him. So be careful, Messrs. Managers, how you stock the cards in the convention."

This sounds rather harsh to those who all along have regarded the Grangers as antipolitical, and unless it is repudiated by them it will injure, and in our opinion very justly, that large organization.

Since the above was written we have received a copy of the resolutions made by the Hanging Fork Grange, in Lincoln county, in which the following occurs: "We unanimously condemn the course of the Southern Agriculturist in attempting to precipitate the Grangers into a political strife and place them in direct antagonism to the teachings of our Order. That said paper is not the recognized organ of our organization, neither can we be held responsible for its course." So the Agriculturist can step down and out, or get kicked out.

PROFITING by the fact of the unreliability of the Ohio river for navigable purposes, an earnest movement is now being made to build a connection with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, and three routes have been named. Meetings are being held at various towns along the Ohio river for the purpose of raising funds for the enterprise, and quite a large amount has been subscribed. The Legislature of Virginia at its late session, authorized a subscription by the city of Richmond, of a million of dollars, to establish a connection with the C. & O. R.R. it having now no reliable connection, the Ohio being unfit for navigation at least one-half of the year, in the summer being dried up, and in the winter frozen. We very much fear that the spring rises in the river will quell the enthusiasm that is now manifested. We trust not, however, for this is a most important route connecting our State directly with Virginia and the East.

A NEW coin, the "twenty-cent" silver piece, authorized by the last Session of Congress, and intended mainly for circulation on the Pacific Coast States, will soon be issued. On one side of the coin is a picture of liberty with the word "Liberty" inscribed on the shield, the whole surrounded by thirteen stars. Beneath the figure is the date "1875." On the other side is the figure of an eagle surrounded by the inscription the "United States of America" and beneath the Eagle the words "twenty cents." The edge of the coin will be perfectly smooth to distinguish it from the twenty-five-cent coin. We have taken the pains to give the description of the coin in full as we are sure that a good many of our readers will never look upon the "dime" original.

THAT old demagogue and press defamer, Geo. Gould Williams, made a lengthy speech at Nicholasville on Saturday last. He refused to divide time with Messrs. McCreary and Johnston who were present, thinking probably that he could devote it more profitably on that interesting subject, "the small gentlemen of the country press." During the speech a row occurred between two men in regard to their favorite candidate, and for sometime there was great excitement, during which the "Monstrous General-in-Chief of the True Knickerbocker, and a representative of the Cincinnati Commercial, realizing the sad effects that might ensue to the country by exposing their carucers, beat an inglorious retreat."

A GOSPEL young blood of Portsmouth, Virginia, started some damaging reports on a young lady of that city, and the young lady after arming herself with a couple of cow-hides, and taking a lady friend along as a witness, displayed her all ity to take care of herself by inflicting a severe flagellation on the wincing back of the cowardly scamp. Bully for her. A few more such plucky women would teach young men how to behave themselves.

The severe cold weather of Wednesday and Thursday nights, last week, destroyed millions of dollars worth of property, as the cold extended over many States, as far down as South Carolina. Fruit of all kinds, large and small, unless we except late winter varieties of apples, and even these may be killed. Such a crop of fruit we have never seen destroyed before. It is a serious calamity. Wheat is hurt but little.

We are requested to publish the following: "The State Sunday School Convention of the Christian Church in Kentucky, will meet in Frankfort, the 11th of May, proximo, and continue in session three days. It is hoped that every Christian Sunday School in the State will be represented by at least one delegate."

B. B. GYLER, Pastor
Christian Church, Frankfort, Ky.

In Lexington on Sunday last, an Irishman named Michael Tully became engaged in an altercation with Pat O'Brien, and after some angry words had passed, the latter was shot once in the bowels and once in the left shoulder. Tully's wife in attempting to quell the disturbance was shot in the bowels. Both persons were mortally wounded.

UNSTAMPED CHECKS.—The Secretary of the Treasury has finally decided that the examination of banks for unstamped checks must be made by the regular Bank Examiners. This order is made to prevent needless irritation of the banks caused by the search of the revenue officers.

The advents, who prophesied the coming of Christ at 6 o'clock on Monday evening last, donned their white robes and sat patiently all night in Chicago awaiting the event, but as it did not come to pass, they quietly dispersed. Verily, these prophets are without honor.

An old merchant has just died in New York leaving a bequest of over four million dollars to endow a College of music. The building will be commenced next Fall, and will be dedicated to the Daughters of America, but will not exclude males.

ANOTHER dam has bursted in Massachusetts, this time causing damages to the amount of $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. No lives were lost, but a large number of men were thrown out of employment by the destruction of the cotton mills.

THE Jefferson Street Christian Church, Louisville, Elder G. W. Sweeney, preaching, has recently received into its membership, over sixty converts, and the revival is still in progress.

THE tobacco plants in the tobacco regions of this State, were all killed last week. This will render the coming crop very doubtful, as it is now almost too late to re-sow the beds.

MR. SARTON, the President's son-in-law, left for Europe on Saturday last, and expects when he gets back to be a little fatter away from his wife. [Philadelphia Times.]

OWING to the embarrassed condition of the Northern Pacific Railroad, it has been placed in the hands of a receiver, who will take charge of all the property at once.

MISS MARIE PRICE, a very estimable young lady of Lexington, died on Wednesday last of consumption.

MA. EDITOR.—Having recently attended a meeting of the Presbytery of Transylvania, we suppose some of your readers may be interested in a synopsis of its proceedings. Presbytery met at the Church of New Providence, in Mercer county, on Tuesday, the 13th inst., at 10 o'clock, p. m. Nineteen ministers, only, were present; the lay delegates were more numerous. The proceedings were opened by a sermon from Rev. J. A. Boyle, the retiring Moderator. Rev. T. A. Backen, of Lebanon, was elected Moderator, and S. V. Rowland, of Danville, temporary Clerk.

Rev. J. W. Pratt, D. D., of the Central University at Richmond, was received after examination, as a member of this body, from the Presbytery of Lexington, Va., we believe. On application of Rev. W. A. Harrison, the Pastoral relation between himself and the Harrodsburg Church was dissolved. Leave was granted the Harrodsburg Church to procure the ministerial services of Rev. J. L. Barnes, of the Presbytery of Upper Missouri. Young Mr. McIntire, of Lebanon, a very promising candidate for the ministry, was up for examination on the Hebrew language when he left.

Resolved were accordingly harmonious and pleasant; but little business beyond the ordinary outline of Spring meetings, was transacted. We may note, however, that a resolution was adopted, nominally and unanimously, endorsing the course of our committee at the late Baltimore Conference. Resolutions containing a strong warning against "lay preaching" elicited a pretty lively discussion. Messrs. Backen, Jinkin and Pratt, spoke in favor of the paper, and W. T. McCreary, opposed it. In passed, however, no one. Mr. McIntire had before a vote was reached. Rev. Dr. Jinkin and Elder S. V. Rowland, were chosen as delegates to the General Assembly to be held at St. Louis in May next, and Rev. J. A. Boyle and Elder Armstrong, their alternates.

The Providence Church was formerly the charge of the celebrated Dr. Chaffin, now deceased, and although, almost the entire generation of his contemporaries have passed away, it seems to bear his impress still. In later days, it enjoyed the ministrations of Rev. D. P. Young, now of Nicholasville, who, though, comparatively youthful, succeeded in winning the warm esteem of this, and many other Presbyterian congregations in Kentucky. Rev. Mr. Glas, also a young man, is now the Pastor of this church, and seems to have the affections of his people in large measure.

The country in this portion of Mercer, is very lovely, and the good people, by their cheerful cordiality and generous hospitality, showed themselves worthy of its beautiful heritage. We venture to assert, that none who had the fortune to enjoy their kindly reception and genial society, will soon forget the people of New Providence.

CAMPBELL & MILLER are agents for the justly celebrated, Boston Harness Leather, and sell it at a very low price.

300 Cans Ladies' and Children's Shoes, just received direct from manufacturer, at the New York Store.

It would do you good to call at the Gallery of Packard & Co., over J. N. Craig's store, and inspect the many styles of Photographs made by them. We were particularly struck with their "Poreline" pictures. They looked as beautiful as ivory, and make all the falsest and most cheap as a sunbeam. Go and see for yourselves.

EVERYBODY ought to know that Ferill & Bush are the favorite, old-fashioned, and that they slaughter on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays of each week the choicest breeds of country hogs, and are prepared at their stall, nearly opposite the Hotel, to furnish live, fat, Mutton, Bacon, Hams, etc., at all times. They have acquired a considerable reputation as far as dealing men, within a short space of time, and intend to sustain that reputation. Farmers can arrange with them for their best throughout the season, and pay for it in live stock. Try them.

LETTERS FROM DANIELS.—There is a lot of interest in the fact that Daniel's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drug Store of Hutton & Strain, and inquire about it. If you suffer from Constipation, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, or derangement of the Stomach or Liver, try it. Two or three doses will relieve you. Daniel's August Flower is now sold in every town and city in the United States. We have not less than five hundred letters from Druggists, saying it is the best medicine they ever sold for Constipation, Throat or Lung Disease, Simple Catarrh of both 10 cents each. Regular size 75 cents. BROWN & STRAIN.

MR. G. H. ENNEL, the popular and genial owner of the most complete store in Somerset, in addition to all the latest novelties, has received the largest and best assortment of spring goods ever brought to that market. He is determined never to be out of a new or underdone, so Grangers, Railroad men and every one else, will do well to test for themselves his very low prices. Everything from a fish hook to the most costly article, can be found at the Dutchman's store, so take our advice and carry all your Butter and Eggs to G. H. Ennel. You need not ask for credit, however, for our Dutch friend keeps no books, and has a bad recollection. Therefore, he sells only for cash. Don't ask us.

HORN JOTTINGS.

We noticed the arrival of quite an extensive stock of new cow cases, awnings, baskets, flower and garden pots, etc., at Campbell & Miller's this week.

AGAIN has the large stock of Mr. E. B. Hayden been augmented, and among the new goods is a handsome lot of ladies' neckties, the prettiest we have ever seen.

QUITE one-third of the audience in the court room on Tuesday last was composed of the colored residents—on account of the many indictments pending against that race of evil doers.

We learn from the friends of Miss Anna Craig, that she has returned from Pueblo, Colorado, where she spent the Fall and Winter, and that she seems to be enjoying excellent health.

We were shown on the morning of April 17, a piece of ice that had formed the night before which measured 2 inches thick. Does the oldest inhabitant remember a parallel case?

REV. J. A. BOULE, our valued correspondent from Hotonville, and Mr. T. K. Fisher, Jr., who "takes the notes" for us in Lancaster, were in town on Tuesday, and favored us with a call.

AGATE, PEYTON, the champion violinist of the "West End," was in town this week. He with several other gentlemen honored us with some very delightful music—for which we return our hearty thanks.

A WORK HOUSE.—It is proposed to our citizens by the Board of Trustees, that there be erected a work-house near town, where those who are found to be a violation of town ordinances, and may be unable to pay the same, can work out the fine. Lying in jail at $5 00 a day, does not go to any one.

NOTHING could be more pleasant to an old bachelor like myself than have our editorial sanctum invaded by such a quartette of beauties as honored us with a call on Wednesday last. It will cheer us in our solitude and make our duties lighter to remember the happy faces of Misses Belle Campbell and Sula Carpenter of Hotonville, and Missa Belle and Jennie Carpenter of this place, as we showed them the "metropolis" of the establishment.

Mac BRIDE, the mother of John C. Cooper, of our town, died last week, at an advanced age. She had been in feeble health for some time. Her funeral was preached at Hotonville, by Rev. J. L. Barnes.

BREIDENBACH, under a strong guard, arrived here at about 12 o'clock Wednesday night, and was assigned quarters in Castle Bedford. He is improving fast. There is not much probability of his trial during this term of the Court.

MORRIS, OWLEY & HOPPER have just received 100 lbs line which they are selling at very low figures, having purchased a large quantity of it. They also have on hand cement and plaster for sale by the lb. Give them a call.

Our very attentive correspondent from Middleburg, Mr. E. Tarrant, made us a pleasant call on Monday last. He had with him some of the articles dug from the Indian Mound, an account of which he gave our readers a short time since.

Mrs. LAZIE TEVIA, wife of N. H. Tevia, died at their residence in this place, on last Monday night, after a long illness of consumption. Her funeral services were preached at the Presbyterian church on Wednesday last, by Rev. W. T. McElroy, and her remains interred in the Buffalo Spring Cemetery.

At a special term of the Police Court at Lancaster, on the 20th inst., Sylvia (Gill), of the colored persuasion, was tried for shooting at, with intent to kill Sallie Dunn, of like persuasion. She was held in bond of $25 to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court, and Sallie Dunn was fined $20 for breach of the peace.

THREE was a man indicted and tried at the present term at the Circuit Court, for going out on Sunday, and shooting squirrels for the purpose of feeding a sick mother-in-law. This is thought to be the first case in which a man is now so much interested in such a relative, and there should a very large mark be made, in order that it may not be forgotten.

THE Sisters that are given by the most excellent principal of the female school here on every alternate Friday evening, have proven both pleasant and beneficial. It affords the young ladies a short season of recreation from their studies and gives them the advantages of society. The one given on last Friday evening was particularly enjoyable.

SCRYM IN COURT.—Left. "May it please your Honor, the only witness for the Commonwealth is dead."

Att'y. for Com'th.—"How do you know that he is?"

Defendant.—"I have got a letter from him—'em—that is, I mean from his daughter. I've got it and will send it to-morrow when I come back."

WORTH it not to be a good idea for some of our farmers who lose sheep by wolfish dogs, to imitate the example of this Virginia farmer.

"A gentleman from Nelson county, Va., informs us that last week a gentleman living near Greensburg, had several sheep killed by dogs. He then took one of the sheep and put it in a large quantity of gunpowder, and the next morning there were thirty-one dead dogs in the field, the earliest one of not being 100 yards from the dead sheep."

MR. CHAMP CARSON, from Robertson county, Texas, arrived in town this week, and is a guest of Dr. T. B. Montgomery. Mr. Carson is one of the delegation that has been visiting this and other States with a view of inducing immigration to Texas. He informs us that he has made arrangements with the Railroad that will enable an emigrant to save from a third to a half of the regular fare. Several families from this county will, we learn, take advantage of this reduction and return with Mr. Carson.

MR. FABRIS, the owner of the Spring Hill race course, at Crab Orchard, has inaugurated a step to have trotting races at his course every fall. This is a good move, as it will tend to promote the raising of fast stock in our vicinity. His plan is to raise an amount to offer as a premium for the fastest stock, by obtaining subscriptions of $5 00, which amount will entitle subscribers to the rights of the grounds. Now is the time for all lovers of fast stock to show their hand in assisting Mr. Fabris in this commendable undertaking.

We have been shown a paper, signed by a large number of influential citizens of Crab Orchard and vicinity, besides each member of the Grange, pledging themselves to the Saturday before each county court day, commencing in the month of May and every such day thereafter during the year, to bring their surplus stock and all that they may desire to dispose of to that place, and thereby establish a regular monthly stock market. They also request their neighbors of the mountain counties to join with them in the enterprise.

PETTY thieves are at the midnight watch. This night this week a gentleman living in the edge of town had two ducks stolen, one dressed for the pot, and the other in the coop awaiting its fate. They were carried off in a water-bucket which was stuck at the same time. Another case of small offense or crime was the taking off of a large tin pan filled with rich cream from the barn, which was stolen from a neighbor of the gentleman above referred to. It is a pity that some arrests was not in the evening. Some night they will find such to be the case.

EXCURSION AND CONCERT.—The "Melodious Society" of Richmond, Ky., under the direction of Prof. Hofer, will, we are pleased to state, give a grand concert at this place, on the evening of May 1st. An excursion train will be run from Richmond, arriving here at 6 o'clock P. M. Prof. Hofer was in town on Wednesday, to make the necessary preparations. He promises us a most delightful treat, and as the Company is of the best families in Madison, we trust that the enthusiasm with which they will be received, will amount to an ovation. The performance will be at the Courthouse and no doubt a large number will be present.

BETTER the excellent attorneys of our own town, the following from neighboring counties, have been in attendance on the Circuit Court now in session: Judge M. J. Durham, R. M. Bradley, B. M. Burdett, J. J. Breckenridge, Geo. W. Dunlap, J. Warren Grigsby, R. P. Jacobs, R. D. Lask, J. S. Van Winkle, Ed. Frank Wolford, R. B. Pittman, E. F. Pugh, J. B. Morton, H. W. Barnett, R. W. Kinsaid, J. W. T. Sullivan, and four latter being from Lexington. Mr. Mat. Walton, a rising young lawyer of Lancaster, was admitted to the practice of his profession in our Court. Two very full articles of the law, Mr. H. C. Kaufman of Lancaster, and Mr. R. W. Hoeker of this place, applied for license, which was granted them.

TOMORROW a week longer, an election for Justices of the Peace, and Constables, will be held. There seems to be no excitement over it, as there is but little profit in these offices for any one. Fourteen of the former and seven of the latter are to be chosen.

BLACK CURE is an expensive luxury at best, but the cost of making one can be materially reduced by following instructions: Firstly—Buy your raisins, currants, etc., on apples, extracts, tartar, flour, lard, sugar and cake pans at Campbell & Miller's. Secondly—Be sure you are correct in apportioning the ingredients—and to be accurate in this, buy a pair of these nice counter scales at Campbell & Miller's—price $1.50. Heat your stove properly—Campbell & Miller sell thermometers—and then "be sure you are right and go ahead." We are not averse to sampling cakes made after this recipe.

A CORRECTION.—We very much regret that under a misapprehension of the case, we did Mr. James A. Harris an injustice in our last issue, by intimating that he had announced himself a candidate for the Legislature regardless of the action of a Democratic Convention. This is not the intention of Mr. Harris, nor did he make such an announcement. He assures us that he will abide the wishes of his party—and no need of a split may be apprehended with regard to his reconsideration to become a candidate. Mr. Harris is a good and true Democrat, and being a man of strict integrity and worth, was not so much surprised at the cordial appreciation with which he is held by his countrymen.

A REPORT is current here of a tragedy in Jessamine. The Sheriff of the county, it seems had collected a considerable amount of the county funds, which he gave to his wife, telling her to lay it in some place of safety, as he would probably be gone for the night. After his departure, a peddler who had frequently stopped at the house, called, and was permitted to spend the night, and assigned the room in which the money was secreted. During the night, the lady of the house was aroused by a man in mask, who demanded the money, but the peddler, who the house would be immediately made that the house would be immediately burned. She then said that rather than have the property destroyed, she would surrender the money, and proceeded to the room of the peddler, who came to her assistance, and placed a bullet through the heart of the would-be robber. But what was the surprise of the wife when she recognized in the features of the dying man, her own husband. It is supposed that his object was to get possession of the money, and thus deprive the county, not for a moment expecting that his game would be found out.

Our emotional nature is heavily balanced, ordinarily and the propeller of the mind, our heart of hearts moves along under ordinary circumstances with the measured tick of an old-fashioned prismatic chronometer. Indeed our moving clocks are like the risks of angels to our plain, sanctified, few and far between. But there are some things that we cannot stand with stolid indifference—things which reach and open the fast gates of our soul and cause indescribable feelings of inward all overtones and outward luxuriance. One of these occasions occurred on Wednesday last, when four of the fairest daughters of the famous "West End" made a graceful onslaught on our diminutive castle of letters, lighting it with the sunshine of their presence. Our youthful form "grinned" a glad smile of welcome, our "devil" grunted a ghastly "grime" of mingled chagrin and delight, the room needed sweeping while the "sun" to fortune and to fame unknown" who means the subtle—affairs of the Journal blushed a maiden's welcome and stood in silent awe of so much loveliness. May we have many such calls, and may happiness and peace attend the charming callers. Selah.

Circuit Court.

The Spring Term of the Lincoln Circuit Court, commenced on Monday last, Judge M. H. Deady, presiding, and Commonwealth's Attorney Deady, at the Court.

JAMES DWYER gave an elaborate and excellent charge to the following members of the Grand Jury, at the present Term of the Lincoln Circuit Court. He mentioned nearly every law and the penalty for its violation, of which the jury should take cognizance. The following comprise the Grand Jury: J. M. Martin, G. T. Jones, R. M. Gentry, M. Helm, S. J. Eubank, J. M. Cooper, J. P. Gosh, T. J. Foster, Samuel Thomas, George Evans, T. K. McHenry, Flen, Cummins, John Turnbull, Geo. W. Ashlock, Reuben Williams and William McKinney.

THE Grand Jury—the following persons are members of the Petit or Standing Jurors: James Moffitt, S. R. Cook, John Howe, Robert Potter, Thos. Reynolds, W. E. McKinney, J. V. Stephenson, B. F. Finkels, L. D. Grede, J. M. Reid, James Lynn, D. McKittick, James Peoples, J. B. Reid, W. T. Stephenson, J. M. Wray, J. M. Phillips, J. M. Roberts, Jr., H. Baughman, Peter Carter, J. V. Gentry, Levi Huddle, James Paxton, Reuben Huddle. We may say, without wishing to flatter the Grand or Petit Jurymen, that they are amongst our best citizens, and we feel sure that they will discharge their duty most faithfully, under their oath. At least, we learn from those who have long resided here, that the foregoing gentlemen are men of the highest honor and respectability.

The Grand Jury has been actively engaged during the entire week, and we have a hint that a large number of indictments will be returned, principally for misdemeanors, but some for felony.

A large number of old indictments have, been, fortunately, either tried or stricken from the docket. Up to this time no one has been sentenced to the penitentiary. Several fines have been imposed for a violation of the penal laws. The equity docket has been considerably shortened, but the common law docket has not been called until to-day, hence the remainder of the present and all of next week will be required to dispose of it. Judge Deady has made two most excellent rules, which he executes regardless of parties who fail to observe them. We refer to his putting a stop to smoking in the court room while court is in session. Several legal gentlemen were fined from two and a half to five dollars for a violation of this rule. The other regulation is the usual to permit the officers of his court to attend suits, litigants, or attorneys, at the door. If they are wanted, they are simply invited in a low tone of voice, to come within the bar; and if they do not respond the business of the court proceeds without them. This latter rule has greatly expedited business, and all parties have been benefited. The rule all regard to smoking has put a stop to a foolish and annoying habit.

LARD, STUFF, AND CROPIERS.

KENTUCKY, a famous race horse, sired by Joe M. Clay, in 1861, on the Ashland estate in Kentucky, died in Long Island this week.

MONEY last was Court day at Danville, and Capt. T. D. English, auctioneer, reports the following: "About 600 cattle on the market, of which number I sold about 300. Former prices were well maintained, some grades bringing a shade higher figures. Inferior calves sold for $10 to $15; medium to good $18 to $20; strictly prime $25 to $27 50; No. one 2 year olds $15 to $18 per head; 2 and 3 year old scrub cattle from $18 to $30 according to quality."

C. S. R. H. Home.

MR. C. A. STUBBS, resident Engineer, returned on Saturday last, from a three weeks visit to his family in Indiana. He certainly deserves this short holiday, as there is not a harder or more faithful worker on the road.

MR. J. P. BOWMAN, formerly resident Engineer on the R. R. near Crab, has been assigned a residence in Grant county. The change will no doubt, prove a very satisfactory one for Mr. Bowman, as his new field of operation is in a fine country.

LETTING No. 20 is advertised for Monday, May 10. In this the Trustees ask for bids on 100,000 rail fastenings, 50 steel rods, 50 steel plates rods, 100 steel bands, 100 steel wash rods, 200 tons railroad spikes. The letting for the unfinished Barker work in Putnam county, and also 12 sections in Grant county Ky., will close on Monday next. We understand that a special form of specifications is required for bids on the Barker work.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

HOTONVILLE, KY., April 20, 1875.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

We are blessed this morning with a gentle shower, and a milder temperature, which already tells on vegetation. This having of last week's cold, has been feast. Fruits generally have been beneath its baneful influence. Early gardens no longer promise a speedy deliverance from the dry detail of winter diet. Much of the wheat is so far advanced as to be jointed, and in all such cases it seems to be destroyed. Perhaps, however, there is something compensatory in this. We hear from every quarter that the surface of the earth is filled with larvae and pupae of army worms, grasshoppers, locusts and other destructive visitors. Most not be that, the unusual and unusual temperature has thrashed those fellows "in their little beds," and lulled them to sleep that will know no waking? If this be so, then let us "take the peaches." Whether it be so or not, we like the style of sunny philosophy. The best thing we have seen lately, was a letter from an old Presbyterian minister in East Tennessee (there is something good in Nazareth) in which he shows how by the late frosts to the amount of $4,000, and then in a per cent, exhibits an actual gain—in the way of fertilization, etc., of $2,400.

We came very near having a decided sensation in our village yesterday. Elder W. L. Williams, and Maj. Buffin, of the C. S. R. R. started for Stanford, in a buggy, driving Williams' fine black horse. They had been gone but a few minutes when the horse returned with a speed and crashing, and blackness suggestive of the storming on the war-path—frenzied in his maddest energy in every muscle, and his distended nostrils smoking like craters of active volcanoes, or kitchen stoves—puffs. There was a rush to the scene of disaster, when the fragments of the vehicle were found kicked ignominiously against the fence, and the dismounted travelers endeavoring to uncoil and extricate themselves from the debris, and to rescue their somewhat terrified horses. The first sound we heard, was the exclamation from the Elder "My head is level!"—and we congratulated him on the improvement, as the act of attempting to drive the horse argued some obliquity in the capital member. The mischance is accounted for by the fact that Elder W. recently succeeded in drawing a portion of his salary, and in the fullness of his gratitude he ventured to give his horse a feed of corn. The novelty of the thing made a fool of the horse.

FROM LIVINGSTON.

LIVINGSTON, KY., April 20, 1875.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

We seldom see anything from Livingston, the present terminus of the Knoxville Branch, in the Interior, and I therefore, just send an item or two.

Our natives are now busy gathering, or peeling bark, great quantities of which are shipped from this and adjacent deposits on the road at this season of the year, and it is a means of considerable revenue to the owners, and a means of giving employment to many persons. This, with our coal mines, is all that there is to give employment to the railroad. Perhaps we may have melons to ship the coming summer, as there is a man here who will engage largely in raising them. He raised some last year which weighed from 25 to 30 pounds each—red, green, and delicious. He got the first seed in a moral way, but don't propose to tell how, for fear some Yankee might patent the melon growers.

ONE of our celebrated fishermen fished the last night, and his line went for the water. So he will have to wait for a general thaw before he can bring home any more fish.

HOK, R. P. GISHMAN, is our champion snipe hunter, even beating that Northern man, of whom the Courier-Journal speaks so often. Snipe are abundant this season.

ONE local Justice of the Peace was riding home on a sack of corn the other day, but corn-jugger soon made the corn ride him, as the bag was on top when they were last seen.

MR. G. ROBERTS, of this place, has invented a dumpled coal vane, so useful to coal shippers, and will make an effort to secure a patent on it. We hope he will succeed, and that his "reelie" may prove to be a success.

An attempt was made, on Saturday night last, to burn the residence of the late owner of some property unknown to the reader, by Thomas, proprietor of Bridgewater riding motor, by admitting the passage of a ray of light through his mortal frame by means of a bullet, but the attempt of the cowardly rascal, was unavailing. Mr. Connelley was returning to Crab Orchard quite late and the firing took him greatly by surprise. He had presence of mind enough to roll over in a gully, when two men supposing him killed advanced toward him but seeing a lady reclining in the midst of Connelley, they beat a hasty retreat.

GENE COUNTY NEWS.

MIDDLEBURG, KY., April 20, 1875.

Those who felt to fill their cellars heretofore, may yet have an opportunity to do so. Farmers are backward in this section. Some commenced planting corn, but were frightened by the cold weather, and ceased. Frost is said to be all destroyed except blackberries, and some farms are left for their safety. Forward wheat is supposed to be much damaged.

The Grangers' feast at this place on last Saturday, was a magnificent affair. The table was laden with substantial diet and every delicate the most fastidious appetite could desire. Everybody was invited to partake, and all were highly pleased. Middleburg is famous for hospitality and feasting on good dinners.

PELANKE COUNTY NEWS.

BOWEN, KY., April 21, 75.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

MR. CAMPBELL, who has finished a course of lectures in the Kentucky Penitentiary, killed a son of old Planetary's, formerly at the Point, Saturday night. As to particulars we hear them related so as to justify each party—we, therefore, refrain from giving either version, as we do not desire an undue prejudice against even the murderer, but simply ask that justice be given him to the fulfillment of the law.

We venture the assertion that whisky was directly or indirectly the cause. If so, who is to bear the stain of this man's blood.

JOHN DAVIS, Sen., died at his home, Sunday night. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and had lived to see his eighty-fourth year. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

ONE DENHAM was married a few evenings since, to a daughter of Ben. Chesnut. She was certainly one of the most beautiful brides we have ever seen.

MANY persons have lately made inquiry for a cheaply bound new Testament, but have not succeeded in getting it. We notice a full stock of pistols are offered where the new Testament once was foretold. Why this change? We are here reminded of the young man who had a Bible and a pack of cards in one pocket, in another, a bottle of whisky, and a pistol in his boot. We wonder if men reflect upon the mission to which they are sending the pistols of which they are making merchandise. The church members indicate that they intend for men to fight their way to glory?

If we are to rely upon all that merchants say, we must conclude that "cost prices" are of very great altitude. There is such a thing as a man's goods under false pretenses, and that should be punishable to the same extent as the obtaining of them in like manner. It is dishonorable and can't be anything else.

We see no reason why a Drug Store should be kept open day and night on Sunday. Can any one else?

DEFENSES say that some of the "lower class" have greatly disdained the brick house, owned by Mr. J. W. Hall, by knocking off the corners of the brick. The State Prison is said to claim all such vagabonds. To hasten the time, our trustees ought to offer some incentive to have their names made known.

J. B. BRADY, preached at the M. E. Church, Sunday night. Text—"Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Come and see." Upon this foundation he built an elegant discourse, urging all Christians to invite others to "come and see." At the close, he announced a woman's prayer meeting to be held weekly. We have often thought that a woman's prayer meeting, with an additional social feature, would be productive of great good; and we here assure that every woman who attends this prayer meeting, regularly, will wield a much greater power for good, and as therefore, urge all good, Christian women to attend. Why another one, and make domestic life all the more interesting and happy. By which she is capable of wielding so much power for humanity's good?

LEADING staples in Kentucky, are pistols and whisky. How unbecomingly the doses of "medicine" that were destroyed in embryo, by the late frost-ripping, the traces upon which John Brown was suspended.

This communication is cut short by a very suitable circumstance. WHAT NOT.

CANDIDATES.

We are authorized to announce, W. B. BRIDGETT a candidate for reelection as Chairman in the Stanford District.

We are authorized to announce CAPT. JAMES A. HALL as a candidate for Representative in the Lincoln county in the next House of the next General Assembly.

We are authorized to announce CAPT. THOMAS H. SHANNON, a candidate for the Legislature at the next August election.

C. L. HENKE, of Shelby county, is a candidate for Register of the Land Office, subject to the action of the Executive Privilege.
